

Calling all artists: Create Spruce Grove's next public mural!

The City of Spruce Grove and the Allied Arts Council of Spruce Grove invite artists to submit a proposal for the creation of a large-scale public mural celebrating our rich agricultural past and the importance of agriculture today and in the future. Applications will be accepted until Sunday, January 15, 2023. See all the details at sprucegrove.org/murals.

Regular Council meeting Monday, January 9, 2023

The Spruce Grove City Council's Regular Council meeting on Monday, January 9 at 6 p.m. will be open to the public and live streamed at sprucegrove.org/livecouncil.

Members of the public may participate in the Public Input Session either in person or virtually. Virtual participation may be done by registering by email cityclerk@sprucegrove.org or by calling 780-962-7615 before noon on January 9.

Alternately, residents can submit a statement or a question to be read on their behalf by emailing cityclerk@sprucegrove.org until the Public Input Session is complete.

City Council and Committee of the Whole agendas and meeting minutes are available at sprucegrove.org/agenda.

Inclusive Parenting: Truth & Reconciliation

This program is designed to give parents and caregivers the tools they need to talk openly with children about reconciliation and Indigenous history in Canada. Facilitated by a local Indigenous Knowledge Keeper, this two-hour session will touch on appropriate language to use with children and ways to discuss colonialism, the Residential School system, and the importance of reconciliation. Free childcare is available.

Join the Council Remuneration Review Advisory Committee

The City invites residents of Spruce Grove over the age of 18 to submit an application to sit on the 2023 Council Remuneration Review Advisory Committee. Being a member of a Council appointed Committee offers an opportunity to:

- contribute to your community
- promote diverse ideas and perspectives through input into the decisions facing Spruce Grove
- learn more about municipal government and about the specific areas covered by the Committee
- expand your network by connecting with fellow residents
- add impressive volunteer experience to your resume

The Council Remuneration Review Advisory Committee reviews salaries and benefits to members of Council, and reviews what expenses should be covered by the City when Councillors are carrying out their duties.

The Committee is composed of three to five public members. It is anticipated the Committee will sit on average once a week between April - June 2023.

Interested applicants may submit their application by visiting sprucegrove.org/CommitteeRecruitment.

Application Deadline: Applications must be received by January 27, 2023.

Candidates may be required to provide a criminal record check.

Join the RCMP CAPTURE Camera Registry

Do you have a security camera outside your home or business? Register it with the RCMP Parkland Capture Registry and help Parkland RCMP solve crimes and keep our community safe. If a crime or incident happens in your neighbourhood, investigators may ask you to share your footage. Joining the registry does not mean you are obligated to share your footage, and registration can be withdrawn at any time. Learn more and sign up at sprucegrove.org/CAPTURE.

WINTER ORGANICS COLLECTION

Green organics carts will be collected from Jan. 9-13 on your regular waste collection day. In the winter, green organics carts are collected during the second week of the month. Use the City's waste sorting app to subscribe for waste collection reminders and learn how you can reduce your food waste. Never forget when organics are collected again.

Collection dates and the Trim Your Trash app can be viewed at sprucegrove.org/organics.
