

We're hiring temporary staff to help conduct the 2023 municipal census

The City of Spruce Grove is currently hiring Census Enumerators and a Quality Assurance Coordinator to help conduct the 2023 municipal census. Enumerators will go door to door and collect census data from residents. The Quality Assurance Coordinator will conduct telephone quality assurance checks with residents to confirm data collected during the census period. Successful applicants must be able to attend a mandatory training session on April 13, 2023. The deadline to apply is Feb. 23. For more information, or to apply, visit sprucegrove.org/census.

Committee of the Whole meeting

Tuesday, February 21, 2023

The Spruce Grove Committee of the Whole meeting on Tuesday, February 21 at 6 p.m. will be open to the public and live streamed at sprucegrove.org/livecouncil.

City Council and Committee of the Whole agendas and meeting minutes are available at sprucegrove.org/agenda.

We Are The Roots

Attend a free screening of the documentary We Are The Roots, as part of Black History Month celebrations. The film tells the stories of Black settlers and their experiences of discrimination on the Canadian prairies. After the screening, take part in a question and answer session facilitated by special guest Deborah Dobbins with the Shilo Centre for Multi-Cultural Roots.

Sunday, February 26 | 2 p.m.
Spruce Grove Public Library
Free to attend
